

CSU H&D Services "Olympics"

Details and Clues Page:

General

This page is the source for information regarding the CSU Housing and Dining Services September Treasure Hunt. It will be updated further, as more specific regarding the hunt are made available.

During the hunt team's will receive their clues either through this web page or, if they prefer, though a hard copy distribution system within H&D Services.

Below, under the heading "Clues", each of the six clues will become available at specific times during the hunt. Once each clue is published to the site the "not yet released" label will change to "Released" with a link to that clue. Your team may access and print that clue from the website or, if you prefer, a paper copy/ies of the clue will be available through other channels in the HDS.

Additionally if there are modifications to a clue, or if any team has requested a hint, there will be a note indicating that modifications have been made to the clue page in question and the date and time that the modifications were made(see sample clue below).

For each clue your team will need to either find either a piece of information on the CSU campus

Hints

While the hunt is under way your team may choose to ask for a hint or some help. That is absolutely fine and is a regular occurrence with many Rootles hunts. When each clue is uploaded there will be an accompanying form that can be filled out. That form will be delivered to a Rootles representative who will provide some assistance with the clue. Your team should understand that this response will be made through the website for anyone participating to see.

Submissions

You have to ways to submit your team's answers during the hunt. Your team may fill out this form below. Alternatively you may print and utilize this pdf to submit your answer sheet, sealed in an envelope, to the Housing and Dining Services Front Desk in the Palmer Center.
